OPEN HOUSE AT SUNDAY RIVER SCHOOL HOUSE HAS ATTENDANCE OF 150

Open House was held at the old Sunday River School House, Saturday, September 4, with approximately one hundred fifty attending including former pupils and teachers. The school, a one room wooden building, was built in 1885 and was in use until 1945. It has been restored as nearly as possible to its original state, as a bicentennial project under the chairmanship of Mrs. Romeo Baker. The building, which has been used in recent years as a community center and Sunday School, still contains many of its original furnishings including desks, a wood burning stove, blackboards, maps, globe, kerosene lamps and books.

Four former teachers were present: Mrs. Eva Swan, Mrs. Julia Fleet, Mrs. Agnes Chase, all of whom taught in the 1920's, and Mrs. Louise Newton Learned who taught from 1931-34. Mrs. Fleet also taught from 1935-38 and for many years has held Sunday School classes in the building. Many former students greeted their past teachers and also found their carved initials on the desks, hunted through scrapbooks and found papers and drawings done in their early years.

Young children sat at the desks and looked through old school books, played with wooden peg games and implements of the past. The former teachers stood at the head of the class and led the visitors in patriotic songs, ably played on the old organ by Mary Valentine.

Refreshments were served on the lawn near the apple tree that was planted by former students. Guests were from Bethel, Newry, Hanover, Locke Mills, West Peru, Milton, Rumford, South Portland, Sabattus, Andover, Bryant Pond, Brewer, Cape Elizabeth, Maine; Westbrook, Mass.; and Bloomington, Ind.

Assisting Mrs. Baker were hostesses Jane Bean Young, Mary Bean Tripp, Florence Nowlin Morgan, all former pupils plus Patricia Fletcher, Julia Fleet and Julie Daye. Refreshments were served by Barbara Yates and Julie Daye. Sharon Daye had charge of the guest book and Mary Valentine, played musical selections on the old school organ. Clean up committee was Florence and Romeo

Newry

Miss Amy Hanscom, Corres.

The Selectmen have received notice that the State Valuation for Newry for 1977 has been set at $3,200,000, an increase of 48.8% over the 1975-1976 valuation. The average increase for Oxford County is 33.2%. Of the five towns in M. S. A. #44, Newry has the largest increase. Andover, with an increase of 27.5%, is the lowest. The State valuation is used in computing the State Tax, Uniform Local Effort Tax for Education, Rumford Center Antiques, Albert H. Brown. Tel. 824-2073. 29-2p

Tax Loss under the Tree Growth Tax Law for 1976 was $17,010, with an anticipated reimbursement from the State of $9,384.44. Present State Law provides that loss under the law shall be reimbursed by the State at 90% of the loss from 1972 taxes. This is to be made sometime 90 days after the adjournment of the regular session of the Legislature. Therefore, reimbursement for the loss in 1975 and 1976 should be made sometime in the fall of 1977. While the law provides that 70% of the loss from 1972 taxes, the actual reimbursement for Newry's 1976 loss will only be 55%, since 1976 taxes are higher than 1972. Without the Tree Growth Tax Law, the 1976 tax rate for Newry would have been .018, a decrease of 5.2 mills from the loss in valuation necessary by the loss in rate made under the law. The Selectmen have conferred with State Officials, legislators and legislative candidates in an effort to have the law updated.

Mr. Eleanor Davis, L. P. N., Chairman of the committee for the Swine Flu Immunization Program for Newry, has appointed her committee and is making plans for the clinics which will be held in October. It is expected that four separate clinics will be held to accommodate different age groups some of which will require two shots. The swine flu, which broke out in Ft. Dix, N. J., last winter, is believed similar to the flu epidemic of World War I. Volunteers will be needed to assist at the clinics, one or more for each of the following. At the registration table, to distribute consent slips and observe signatures; direct and help with young children; stationed at table to collect consent slips before vaccine is administered; wipe arm and allow skin to dry; nurse or other medically qualified person or persons to prefill syringes and administer vaccine; place dry cotton ball on injection and instruct vaccine recipient to press firmly for approximately 30 seconds. At least one physician and one registered nurse will be required. Persons wishing to volunteer should contact Mrs. Eleanor Davis, Mrs. Davis, or her representative, will be attending another meeting at the Rumford Community Hospital next week, after which more information will be available.

The Mothers Club will meet at the Raymond Foster School, Sept. 13, at 7:30 p. m. There will be a Tasting Party.

Upton

Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres.

The annual Labor Day supper was served to more than 75 people Saturday evening. Except for a light shower at the wrong time and shortage of seating, everything went smoothly. The committee wishes to thank each of the many people who contributed to the supper and helped make the supper a social and financial success.

Mrs. Yvonne Viens is scheduled for an operation in the hospital in Berlin, N. H. A card to her with her own Upton home address in the corner for return address will reach her one place or the other. She expects to be hospitalized at least a week.

Nearly every dooryard in town had extra vehicles as friends and families of citizens enjoyed the country during the holiday week end.

Most of the camps were occupied during the week end and through traffic was heavy.

The Upton Union church held the annual business meeting Saturday evening. It looked as though this might be the third non-occurrence of the year, as there was no presiding officer but Mr. Heywood left and when he returned he had Bill Harris in tow. Frank Tucker was chosen as trustee for five years; Charlie Heywood appointed assistant moderator, and Joy Yarnell replaces Edward Brennan on the building committee. Otherwise the officers and committees remain the same.

The fund raising committee were shown appreciation for their work and an unusual highlight was a very brief history of the Coolidge family, presented in a concise and informative fashion by Charlie.

A light frost damaged some gardens rather early in the year.

Andre and Arline Bernier went to East Sumner Tuesday. Sidney Abbott is able to walk slowly and received many cards and telephone calls from relatives and friends unable attend.

Albert Beradenelli and Albert, Jr., and Earl Val, Needham, Mass., visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Flanders, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo DeMuccio, Pascoag, R. I., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund F. Seeley.

Mrs. Eleanor Morton, Peter and Jock, visited Mr. and Mrs. Everett Saunders and family, Bethel, Sunday P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McDonnell and Dale, Topsham, visited Mrs. Mary Tripp and Robert Bean, Wednesday.

All friends in this area are invited to participate in the next crazy quilt. To do this, make a 12" square using as many pieces as you can fit in. For each piece in the square, donate one cent. Put money and square in a sealed envelope and get it to me by Oct. 15. The money will be used for batt and backing with remainder used for children for Halloween or Christmas. Each participant is asked to paint or sew his or her name on the square and the quilt with the largest number of pieces sewn onto one square receives the quilt. Not much time so get out your scrap bag.

— Mrs. Collista Morgan, Corres. —

I went out into a world of dew and flowers where myriads of humble bees were filling in with sound. They seemed more insistent than usual. The tireless sound made me think of waters going over a falls.

The humming birds' wings were a rainbow whirl but because they revolved so fast, they gave an illusion of stillness. The long bills seemed held fast by a magnet as they buried them in the pink jewel weeds. I stood near by, elated, with the sweetness of blossoms and the warmth of the sun during moments of breathless watching.

there an isolated patch of color. The weeds in the pond are no longer attractive, and green castles of algae rise.

Monarch butterflies have been drifting by, pausing to sip the sweetness of the flowers then sailing along toward the south making themselves part of a flowing tide.

September, the month of crickets and golden-rod, heavy dews, and puddles appearing overnight.

One afternoon under a vast landscape with a tissue of clouds, Ruth and I set out to find a new trail called Mount Tiro'm in Waterford. We entered a stand of pines, with the trail wandering through the trees. Here beneath the pines it was shadowy and cool, pungently scented and a murmur of whispering branches overhead. At our left the brook answered whisper for whisper in bubbling reply. The brown soft carpet beneath our feet spread out and out until we left the pines. We wandered slowly from turn to turn among the trees on the forest trail. We stopped to look at a white toadstool. We examined ferns. We looked at the berries of the haneberry plant and the Clintonia. We saw the Indian pipes and enjoyed the brilliant greens of the wet mosses.

At the top where ledges spread out in all directions we had a view of Long Lake and the hills and lakes of Waterford and Norway.

We sat for a time with the view and the warmth of the sun. With such a surrounding it is easy to relax; something like a drought-dried plant in a summer shower. Nature's calm.

We then descended the trail into our pine garden once again. For worth and beauty of design, I think no tree outtrunks the pine.

The pine whose lustrous hunger feeds On earth's strength for human needs; Whose very presence breathes a calm; Whose spirit is a healing balm; The pine whose slender fingers play Faint organ music night and day; Who has the grace not to complain In face of snow or wind or rain. All trees are God's and thus But King of trees, He crowned the pine.

Greenwood City Yacht Club Meets

Approximately 35 people gathered at Bikini Beach, Hicks Pond, for the Club's fifth cook out. As usual John Betts was in charge of the chickens, roasting them to perfection. There were games for the young group, boating for those who wished and music for everyone. Decorations were colorful. Christmas lights strung all across the beach. Who else has displayed them this early? Above the bonfire after dark, they sparked their cheerfulness. September Christmas and fun!

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hayes and boys, Gray, spent the week end at the Hayes Homestead while Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hayes and Elmer and Scot Hayes were at Lyford on a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Phillips and son were at the Hayes Homestead during the first of the week.

Ruth Hastings who has spent the summer at the Inman camp has moved back to her home in South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bowen of Massachusetts were at their camp for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. David Holt, Princeton, spent the week end with their parents, returning home on Monday.

CARD OF THANKS

To all who contributed to our gift for all the cards, and to our family and good friends who did so much to make our 35th anniversary party at the Moses Mason House such a momentous occasion for us, we wish to express our very deep appreciation.
